

I have lately lost
a sister, two years my senior;
but I have not a sheet of mourning paper in the house, & the flood prevents me from sending for some

Riverside
12 Jan 1877

My dear Mr Harlowe

On every account
I can now do no more than thank you for your remembrance (excuse my hasty blundering) of my birth-day. I do so heartily.
It was very kind of you.
Pray give my best compliments to Mrs Harlowe, who once came here with you.

Yours very sincerely

J. Payne Collier

(in his 89th year)

S. H. Harlowe Esq.

I have lately had a letter two years old but I have not a doubt of its being from the same person. The letter is 12 Jan 1871

My dear Mr. Hartman
On my account
I can now do no more than to ask you for your kindness (if possible)
to keep the money of my little bag. I have lately received your kind letter and am very glad to hear of your success in the business. I am very truly yours
J. P. Hartman

No 3. is dup. for an unfinished Yellow Four letters 2y 4. or 5-Pierce penmanship No. 6
New letter No 7.
Pierces Superscript. 8
Do Pt. 2. —

Have with you 9
right to No 14
Small tract. New Praise & come after]

Blue Churchyard
Turkiville's +
Whetstone

Red Broadides
old Ballads
odd & ends

Missed by Is Helicon
in Poetical Miscellanies

